Dated 7th March 1896.

To
The Secretary to the Government of Ceylon
Kandyan Department

Sir,

With reference to Proceedings of Government No. 944 dated 19th April 1895, I have the honor to state that I called the contending parties together and settled the difference between them in regard to the management of the Navaladinthaswami temple in Kanjikatte Kolakkene Valoor.

2. The dispute was about the forum in which the Poojaris of the temple was to be installed in his Office, and it has been settled by the parties among themselves.

3. The temple is not a very important and does not need much active intervention on the part of Government Officers.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
